

Ford County Emergency Management Agency

February 19, 2024

Hello from the Ford County Emergency Management Agency! Our team of volunteers is committed to helping the county and its residents daily. Coordinator Terry Whitebird has years of experience helping the community, planning for the known and unknown, and developing safety plans across the local region. Please consider our Emergency Management Agency for assistance with town-wide functions, emergency scenes, during severe weather, and more! Below are several of the free services that we have to offer the county and its people.

- Emergency Operation Safety Planning and Hazard Mitigation
- Communication and Incident Command Support
- Severe Weather and Storm Spotter Training
- Community Service
 - Traffic/Perimeter Control
 - Search and Rescue/Scene Safety
 - Smoke Detector Installations
 - Weather Radio Giveaways
- Decision Support Services
 - County Fair
 - Local Festivals

If anyone is interested in joining our growing team of volunteers, please contact Terry Whitebird at 217 379-9415 or via email at EMA@FORDCOUNTY.ILLIOIS.GOV

Thank you,

Ford County Emergency Management Team
